

Red Tape Review Commission
September 21, 2011 Public Meeting

On September 21, 2011, the Red Tape Review Commission will hold a public meeting at Richard Stockton College – Carnegie Library Center, from 2:00 pm until 5:00 pm. Members of the public are invited to provide testimony at the meeting that concerns overly burdensome regulations or regulatory processes, with such comments limited to 3 minutes per speaker.

Witnesses are encouraged to register before the meeting by emailing the Commission at redtape.review@sos.state.nj.us or by telephoning (609) 984-7145 to reserve a place in the speakers' lineup. Also, witnesses should submit a written copy of their comments, preferably beforehand. Witnesses submitting comments on the day of the meeting should provide 10 copies to the Commission staff. If applicable, the Commission requests that witnesses provide the citations to the specific provision(s) of the New Jersey Administrative Code that they propose to discuss.

The event will be hosted by Richard Stockton College and the Small Business Development Center affiliated with the College. The Carnegie Library Center is located in Atlantic City, at 35 South Dr. Martin Luther King Boulevard, a block from the Atlantic City Boardwalk.
